We were created to live within the rule and reign of God – His world, His kingdom. We are most at peace when we live under His reign. Worship is the by-product of the fact that we were created to live under the authority of another. See Matthew 6:9-10. A day is coming soon when Christ will indeed rule and reign supreme over all (Rev. 11:15).

The Kingdoms in Conflict of the title are the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Man. This book starts with a (somewhat strange) fictional narrative of how the two kingdoms can come into conflict in our world. I didn't like the narrative and thought it was left hanging and unresolved as the book progressed.
