True at First Light. The Kenyan setting is atmospheric, but the promising elements of the plot--a possible Mau Mau attack on the camp, Miss Mary's determination to kill a lion--too often stagnate for lack of action and dramatic tension. Some uneasiness occurs between Hemingway and Mary over Hemingway's attraction to an African woman, Debba,...

Fiction Book Review: True at First Light by Ernest

True At First Light. He was a very complicated man compounded of absolute courage, all the good human weaknesses and a strangely subtle and very critical understanding of people. He was completely dedicated to his family and his home and he loved much more to live away from them. He loved his home and his wife and his children.
